

Do you remember what order the below happened in the story?

Starting with 1, write in each circle the order of events.

People were accustomed to regular apples, bananas, and potatoes.

Frieda got a funny feeling in her elbows when she found a new food people would be willing to try. She added stickers to the produce with descriptions of the fruit or vegetable.

Frieda Caplan introduced mushrooms. The people were skeptical, but they tried the mushrooms and liked them!

Frieda was persistent. People began to buy mushrooms from roadside stands and restaurants.

She sold many mushrooms and was named the "Mushroom Queen."

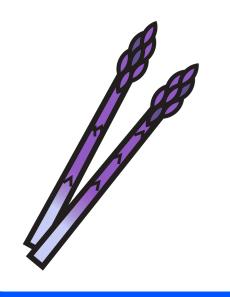

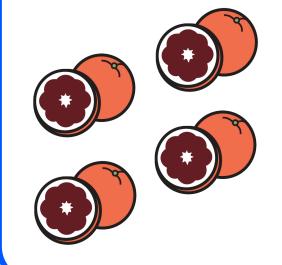

1²3

Help count the different types of produce in each of the boxes.

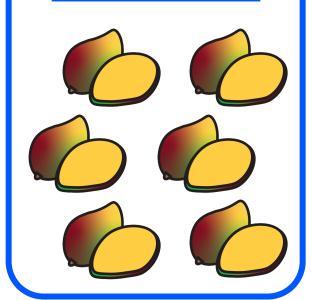

How many purple asparagus are there?

How many blood oranges are there?

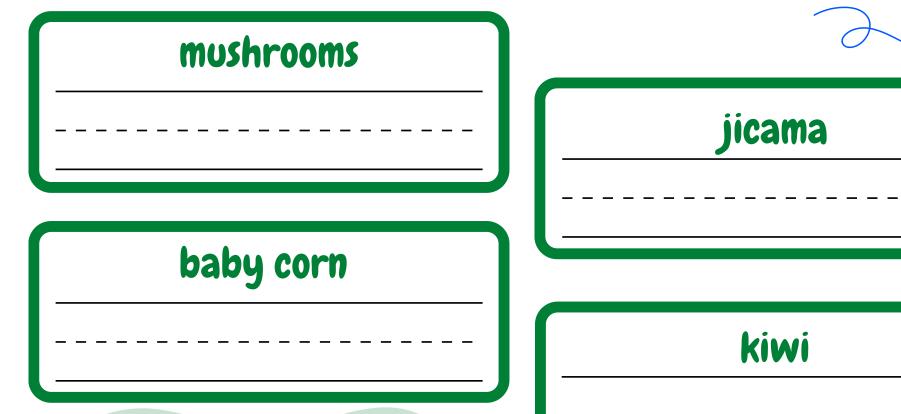

How many mango are there?

Frieda Caplan encouraged people to try fruits and vegetables that they had never wanted to try before. Read the words and then write them.

Which fruit or vegetable sparks your curiosity to try? Can you find these in your grocery store?

Find the different types of produce and words from the story in the word search

Apples
Bananas
Elbows
Frieda
Fruit
Gooseberries
Grocery
Froduce
Store
Try

We learned about the history of several foods. Which food was your favority food to learn about?

